Mission & VISION

"We follow a customer centric approach"

That means we always keep our clients at the center while making any decisions or progress in the market.

Whether be any food industry or bee products industry, today getting quality products has become the challenging part. That is why we started "Shreevarni Export". We are continuously working towards providing the best quality honey and bee by products to everyone. We are educating people about beekeeping, bee products and their benefits.

Today, we are supplying our products to many prestigious brands and suppliers throughout India. If you want to source good honey and bee products then nothing is better than sourcing it directly from beekeepers. Our vision is to provide 100 % organic and natural honey to our consumers.

Every moment we are working towards improving the quality further.

As after covid there is a continuous increase in demand of honey and bee products. That is why beekeeping is also increasing. So, anyone planning to start beekeeping or source quality honeybee products is welcome at "Shreevarni Honey".
